

After School Support Teacher

Start Date: August 27, 2024

The Learning Project is a small elementary school centrally located in Boston's Back Bay neighborhood. We believe in nurturing students' academic and personal growth, encouraging the joy and creativity within each child, and taking advantage of all that our city setting has to offer.

For over fifty years, the core of the school's Mission has remained: to enroll a diverse group of students, provide them with exciting and age-appropriate learning opportunities, to help children develop strength of character, and to build a sense of connection through yearly traditions, cross-age opportunities, and meaningful whole school activities. As a uniquely small school, The Learning Project's community remains its biggest strength, and core to that community is its dedicated faculty and staff who are committed to the school's mission, its families, to supporting one another, and to their own personal and professional development.

The Learning Project seeks a part-time After School Support Teacher to lead a small group of elementary school students from 3:00pm-5:30pm daily, Monday through Friday. The role entails supervising children at the playground, as well as working with students on academics as they complete homework and assignments in the classroom. Depending on the day's activities, the After School Support Teacher may also be asked to engage with children in group games and lead additional educational opportunities.

This position is ideal for anybody who enjoys working with children and wants to gain experience managing a group and being a key part of a school community. The school offers highly competitive salary, and provides CPR and First Aid training if needed.

Experience with elementary age children is a must, along with strong interpersonal skills, attention to detail, excellent organization, and a commitment to the values and principles of this school, as described in our Mission Statement.
